For extraordinary heroism in action during the operations against the Hindenburg Line, east of Pontsoy, France, Sept 29-1918. Finding the advance of his organization held up by a withering enemy machine gun fire, Pvt Mastine volunteered to accompany another soldier forward, and with utter disregard of their own personal danger they rushed forward through an intense machine-gun fire directly upon the enemy nest, killing two and capturing five of the enemy and silencing that gun. Discovering another machine-gun nest close by, which was pouring a deadly fire on the American forces, preventing their advance, Pvt Mastine and his companion charged upon this strong point, killing the gunner and putting this machine-gun out of action. Without hesitation they jumped into the enemy trench, killed two and captured sixteen German soldiers. Pvt Mastine then rejoined his platoon and continued to advance until wounded.

During the occupation of a section of the line in front of Mt Kemmel, Belgium, in the Dickebusch sector, July 11, 18, this soldier proved an inspiration to his comrades by his cool and courageous action in that together with another volunteer he exposed himself under light of a full moon to enemy machine guns and trench mortars for one hour while he cleared from in front of his trench a mass of high grass that would have proven an aid to an enemy raid.

A Tribute to Capt. Fancher

7 Rpt Gazette May 1919
A portrait of Capt. Fancher Nicoll

Co. L, painted by George Burroughs Correy, was unveiled in the Chapter Room on Wednesday, April 24, 1919.

Those were present, the widow and children and other relatives and friends of the late Capt. Nicoll; Col. Willard C. Fisk, and the Officers and men of Co. L.

The unveiling address was very touching and appropriately delivered by Col. Willard C. Fisk, who told his hearers how Capt. Fancher Nicoll, commanding Co. L, 107th U. S. Inf. (formerly 7th Regiment N. G., N. Y.), was killed in action in France while leading his Company in a fierce engagement which took place the latter part of September 1918—an action so fierce that but twenty-nine members of his command are reported to have survived.

Capt. Fancher Nicoll

when Captain Nicoll was dying he reached out his hand to comfort his Company clerk who had been wounded beside him. That's the way all the incidents connected with Co. L and the Regiment run—heroism and bravery that can never be surpassed."

Capt. Nicoll, continued Col. Fisk, participated in several engagements on the Western front, and the Colonel quoted from an order of Maj.-Gen. O'Ryan of August 30th, 1918, the following contained in a letter received from the Commanding General, 6th British Division:

"I have read with great interest the report of Capt. Nicoll, commanding L Co., 3rd Battalion, 107th Inf. on the attempted raid by the enemy in his post at N5015.30 at 5 a. m. yesterday.

"Will you please convey my congratulations to the officer commanding and all ranks of the 3rd Battalion 107th Inf., on the gallantry and skill with which they repulsed the enemy."

Capt. Nicoll was the son of the late James C. Nicoll N. A., whose death preceded that of his distinguished son by a few months. He was 39 years of age, having been born on the 29th day of October, 1878, at Shrub Oak, Westchester County. He was a graduate of Williams College in the Class of '99, and thereafter attended Columbia Law School. After his admission to the bar in 1901, he immediately entered the law offices of Harris & Towne of this City, in which firm he was a partner at the time of his death. In 1905 Capt. Nicoll married Marie Christine Spies. Mrs. Nicoll and two children survive him.

Capt. Nicoll's military career commenced on March 21st, 1900, when he enlisted in Co. K of the 7th Regiment. He became Sergeant in that Company on January 15, 1909, and was transferred to Co. L when that Company was created on the increase of the Regiment from ten to twelve companies, Sleepy Hollow Club, Hardware Club, The Society of Colonial Wars and the various auxiliary organizations of the 7th Regiment. He was a Mason, and was Past Master of Independent Royal Arch Lodge No. 2, F. & A. M. He was also a member of the New York Historical Society, and for many years was its Recording Secretary, resigning shortly before his Regiment went abroad.
